

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

MAGAZINE

June 13-26, 2007

TASTY TIDBITS

On Burgers and Brothers

Nuts for Natick... When did Natick get so cool? Last month, we reported that French eatery Sel de la Terre would be opening another location in the newly renovated Natick Mall, and now we have news that the Met Club is headed there as well. Slated to open in September, the restaurant will seat about 200 patrons and deliver the same upscale, steakhouse feel as its Chestnut Hill location, with one very notable addition: a burger bar. The bar will feature a vertical grill, used to enhance the flavor of the meat. Guests can choose from an array of sauces and toppings, including kimchi, pepperdews, shiatsu peppers, truffle oil and pan-seared foie gras. www.metclubandbar.com.

The Met Club's miniburgers